"SEE MCKEE—HE KNOWS HOW"

Last week the Standard Oil Company through Judge H. Clay McKee, their agent and attorney, closed a deal with N. H. Trimble for the purchase of his lot situated on the southeast corner of East Main and Wilson street and will erect upon it a service station that will be an ornament and credit to that end of the city. The Standard Oil Company is "taking time before the top," being far-sighted enough to locate its station on the Midland Trail, which runs through Main street from ocean to ocean, and we are glad to see Judge McKee, who has for many years been a booster for the city and a very enthusiastic advocate of good roads, and especially of the Midland Trail, become a beneficiary by making this deal.

Why is an editor? Merely to make a living for himself? Perhaps that is the sole purpose of some. But nine cases out of ten he has a definite feeling of responsibility toward his community and wants his paper to be as helpful to all the people as his ability and the money return he receives on his investment and for his own thought and labor will permit.

COBURN'S MINSTRELS FRIDAY

"Joe" Coburn, owner of Coburn's Minstrels, is an enthusiastic angler of the flimsy tribe as for entertainers and novelties in his company, believes Florida is the ideal state and delights to display to his friends the beautiful drives and the world renowned beach at his home, Daytona, as well as motor along the Halifax and other streams where fishing is excellent. Charlie Gano with a party of friends were off for a day's fishing with "Cobe" the past summer and among other good things in the lunch baskets was some home-made pie. Gano is not strong for fishing, but is long on pie. After his third piece Cobe said, "Charles, if you eat any more pie you'll sure bust, man." "All right, pass the pie and get out of the way," was the comedian's reply. It's evident he did not "bust," however, as he is coming to the Tabb Theatre on Friday, as usual, with Coburn's Minstrels with a new line of songs, jokes and comedy acts for which he is famous. It is said the show is the best Manager Coburn has ever had and aside from Gano the company has been entirely changed in personnel, with new acts, scenery, costumes and the musical numbers. Gano's "Hindoo" after piece is said to be the best and funniest farce he has ever produced, costumes, characters and the scenery in keeping with comical and absurd situations, musical and dancing number interspersed throughout, eclipsing the Chinese Finale of the past year.

At Fair Grounds park Friday afternoon the football team of the Mt. Sterling High School was defeated by the team from Lawrenceburg to the tune of 13 to 7. The local boys started off with a rush, making their lone touchdown in the first quarter, but after this the line seemed unable to hold, and the Lawrenceburg boys' superior knowledge of the game proved too much for the local eleven.

Fighting Diphtheria

When Schick tests for diphtheria are given the 2,200 school children of Owensboro during the first ten days of this month it will be the first time that an effort has ever been made in Kentucky to immunize against diphtheria all the school children of a city, according to Dr. A. T. McCracken, State Health Officer.

A concerted drive has been planned to carry this program out. Immediately after receipt of word from Dr. G. W. Duvall, Daviess county health officer, that diphtheria had broken out in the county and in Owensboro, the state board began its preparations for the wholesale Schicks. Arrangements were made to have the necessary materials sent to Owensboro, and Miss Cora Wallace, former assistant director of the Louisville Public Health Nursing Association, and Miss Edna Reinster, recently connected with the School of Public Health, left yesterday for that city to aid Dr. Duvall and his two public health nurses in making the Schick tests and giving the immunity serum where necessary.

BOONE FARMERS WILL TEST AND RAISE VALUE OF COWS

As a further step in increasing the value of their herds seven Boone county farmers who are owners of high producing animals have become members of the Campbell-Boone County Co-operative Cow Testing Association and will place their cows on official test for register-of-merit records, according to a report of E. M. Prewitt, dairy extension specialist at the College of Agriculture.

Boone county is recognized as one of the best dairy counties in Kentucky, dairy specialists say, but the dairymen realize that they cannot command the highest prices for their animals until they have an official test of them and know what their milk and butterfat records are. By becoming members of the local cow testing association they will be able to obtain these records. Boone county farmers won more than $700 in cash prizes on their dairy exhibits at the state fair, according to Mr. Prewitt.
